Personal.

Mr. J. C. China spent Sunday in the city. Mr. V. R. Pringle has charge of the Wedgfield High School.

Mr. M. G. Eyteneberg arrived in the city from New York last week. Mr. Brainard Wilson is teaching the Bethel High School near Oswego.

Dr. Archibald and Mrs. and Mrs. J. F. Laughey have gone to Chicago. Mona Berger has gone to Wadesboro, N. C., where he will open a dancing school.

Mrs. J. C. Rivers, (nee Miss Anna DeLoraine) of Greenville, is on a visit to relatives in the city.

Miss Carrie Brown, of Blytheville, sister of Mrs. E. H. Hogan, is very sick at Mr. Hogan's.

Miss Laura Walsh, who has been spending sometime in Wilmington, N. C., has returned home.

Misses Mamie Fullwood and Mary and Hattie Wilson, of Magnolia, are visiting Miss Nina Gregg.

Miss Pauline Fraser, of Georgetown who has been visiting Miss May Holman, has returned home.

Mrs. D. E. Dunlap, of Lancaster, (nee Miss Bettie Raffield) has returned home after a month's visit to her parents.

Miss Agnes Dick is spending the week with Mr. M. P. Coker and will leave on Saturday for Florence County where she will teach.

Miss Margaret Brunson, daughter of Mr. Joel E. Brunson left on Monday for Greenville, where she will maintain the Furman University which has opened its doors to women.

N. G. Osteen, Jr., will visit, during the next month, all portions of this county in the interests of The Watchman and Southern. He will receive subscriptions and collect outstanding accounts.

A ladies' bicycle was raffled last night by Mr. Douglas China, and was won by Mr. Harvie DeChamps on a bid of $4.

Luke's and Rickard's large lumber mill in this city has been shut down for three weeks for repairs. It is probable that a large new dry-kiln will be built to take the place of the old kiln.

A letter containing money addressed to "Miss Emma M. Hays, Philadelphia, Pa.," and dated Aug. 11th, 1893, has been returned to this post office. It is signed "J. P." and the writer can get it by proving property.

A good joke is told of one of the barbers who a young gentleman from the country dropped in for a shave, which he obtained in due time. When he left he took the wrong hat. The next day he was searching every place he visited subsequent to obtaining the shave. He was unsuccessful until he reached the barber shop. There he was informed that he had been wearing the hat of one of the barbers, and the barber had, in self-defense, been wounding him.

Hot Supper.
A hot supper will be given at the Jones School house in the Zoar neighborhood, on Friday night, October 20th. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the County Hospital Fund, and a large patronage is solicited.

Hot Supper at Mayesville.
Mr. Editor: You and the public generally are requested to attend a Hot Supper to be given by the ladies of the Methodist Church, at the Masonic Hall, in Mayesville, Friday evening, Oct. 27.

Dropped Dead.
Henry Tiedal, a negro man about 50 years old, who lived on Mr. Joe White's place in the Jordan neighborhood, died, on last Thursday while at his work and apparently in good health. An inquest was held by Coroner Commander, and the verdict was that death resulted from natural causes.

The Dairy Cakes Owners.
Mr. T. B. Chandler has sold his Dairy-cakes, and general outfit, to Mr. E. A. Swinton, who will continue to run the business at his own place. Mr. Swinton is from Long Island, near Charleston, and has recently removed to Sumter to live, having bought from Mr. A. White his place in the northern suburbs of the city.

Our Advertisers.
W. M. Graham advertises Native Hay. Neale Red Roof Ads, Wagons, Buggies, etc.

Levi Bros. address the public in an attractive advertisement this week. They inform their friends that they are still at the same old stand and propose more next week.

Miss Sallie McDonald's opening has come off as advertised last week. Her many admirers were greatly charmed by the beauties and novelty offered for their inspection. We call attention to her advertisement in this week's issue.

W. B. Burns makes his bow this week. He offers restorers, pocket knives, tools, etc. Also Paints. What he wishes chiefly to impress upon our readers is the fact that, if any of his articles fail to give satisfaction, he takes them back. As to paints, if they do not stand on your house, he will furnish material to repaint it.

To-morrow and throughout the week, the Hecker-Jones-Jewell Milling Co., will give a practical exhibit of their flour in the store next to the Simonds National Bank. A lady assistant will be present, and the ladies of the city and vicinity are especially invited to attend.

Moses Green—Headquarters for Fruits, Confectionery, Toys, &c., makes his usual Fall announcement. He controls the sale of Huyler's candies in this city, and those who want something good always buy it.

250 dozen new choice tomatoes 2 and 3 lb. cans just in at W. H. Yates.

All kinds of Heavy and Fancy Groceries, fresh every week, at W. H. Yates.

Tricots, Cashmeres, Flannels and other heavy weight dress goods are now offered at N. Y. coat, at DesChamps Bros.

We still have a few pair of the Posters' Kid Gloves slightly damaged, at 35 cents a pair, at DesChamps Bros.

The Ship of a Figure.
There was a slight clerical error in the Statement of the Bank of Sumter, as published last week. The item "Undivided Profit" should have been $17,570.73 instead of $15,570.73. The mistake made a difference of $2,000 in the item mentioned, but the footing of the column was what the correct statement would have made it. The statement is republished to-day with the correction made.

Simonds National Bank.
The report of this Bank having been called for by the Comptroller of the Currency, for Oct. 3rd, 1893, the report is made of that date.

The total sum up $220,259.70, with deposits $24,131.88, bills rediscounted $23,000, undivided profits, since July, $2,554.09. Cash on hand $20,288.10.

There was an excellent showing for the bank, indicating the conservative character of its dealings, and the care with which its loans and discounts are made. These amounts to $163,158.16.

Several of the Banks it is not known when a statement is to be called for, and hence the call may come at a time when the showing is not so good as a few days before or after it would be.

Call for the celebrated Garrett & Sons No. 11 cigars, kept only by DesChamps Bros.

Marriage.

Rev. S. C. Byrd, of Oxford, Miss., and Miss Wilhelmina Law Coby, youngest daughter of Rev. J. S. Coby, of Newberry, were married in the Presbyterian Church at Newberry, on Tuesday evening, October 3d, 1893. Rev. J. S. Coby, the father of the bride, officiating.

Deaths.

Mason Jacobs, son of T. D. and Virginia Brogdon, born April 7, 1891, died Oct. 5, 1893, at Hardville, S. C.

Capt. J. S. Folk, of Providence, died on Monday last. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Jno. Chandler at Providence Church, yesterday.

His funeral was one of the largest country funerals ever seen in this country. Capt. Folk served through the war as captain of a company in the 6th N. C. Cavalry, though a native of Isle of Wight county, Virginia.

After the war, through which he served with gallantry, found it impossible to live at his old home, in Watauga county, N. C., which was a stronghold of Union sympathizers, and came here in May, 1865, not intending to remain permanently, but he liked the people and the country, and finally decided to settle near Providence, where he lived until his decease. He married Miss Julia Ballard, of this county, who survives him, together with several children.

Superior of Registration for several years, from 1886 to 1891.

As was said of him by a friend, though poor he was always a gentleman and a man of honor—one of the "Old Guard" whose ranks are growing thinner year by year.

Religious.

Rev. Dr. Tadlock of Columbia filled the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning.

Rev. John Sergius, a Hindu Christian of Jewish parentage, lectured in the Methodist Church on last Sunday evening. The lecture was in place of the regular exercises of the Epworth League. He came from India and is lecturing in this country in the interest of an orphanage.

He says there are 70,000 Christian Jews in India and that the people are converted by the preaching of the Apostle Thomas, during the days of Christ.

Bishop Capers.

The Right Rev. Dr. Capers (D. V.) visit Bradford Springs Church on next Wednesday, 18th inst. The Bishop was prevented from making his visitation on Sept. 12th, on account of the death of a near relative. The hour of service will be 11.30 a. m. The Holy Communion will be administered. The collection will be given to the Bishop, to be used at his discretion.

Harmony Presbytery.
Harmony Presbytery convened at Concord Church on last Wednesday and remained in session until Friday afternoon. The attendance was not very large.

Rev. W. W. Mills, of Camden, was elected Moderator, and Rev. C. O. Martindale, temporary clerk. Considerable routine business was disposed of. A new directory of worship was adopted, which was the most important matter of the session.

Rev. W. H. Hollingsworth was a candidate for ordination and was received. He has been called to Mt. Zion Church, and will be installed on fourth Sunday in October. Dr. N. W. Edmunds was appointed to preside at the installation. Rev. W. J. McKay to preach the sermon and charge the pastor, and Rev. W. A. Gregg to deliver the charge to the congregation. The next meeting of Presbytery will be held at Midway Church, Williamsburg County, next April.

The sermon on Sunday was preached by Rev. W. W. Mills, to one of the largest congregations that has attended Concord Church in a long while. Rev. W. C. Smith, of Mayesville, acted Mr. M. in administering the Holy Communion.

The Cowweb Party.
This entertainment, which has been looked for with bright anticipations for some time by our young people, closed off with brilliant success on Monday night, at the residence of Dr. A. J. China. There was a large attendance and much merriment as the young men and maidens, old men and children around the tortuous skeins of the many-colored web, which had been diligently and deftly woven by the committee in charge.

A Broken Leg.

Louis Warren, a son of Mr. A. G. Warren, aged about ten years, was playing on cotton scales on the sidewalk at the corner of Main and Republican streets, yesterday afternoon. In trying to walk or leap from one pair of scales to the other, the scales were upset and he fell, striking the middle of the School Commissioner's office. The scales fell across his thigh and broke it, not far above the knee. He was taken home, and his leg set, by Dr. Baker. He is doing very well.

A Fraud.

A man signing himself F. W. Ferguson, Agent, has canvassed this city, and issued tickets to persons who paid him fifty cents each, agreeing to furnish a crayon portrait of the holder, who will have same framed, at his studio. The studio is not located, but he represented that P. Sinclair's Art Gallery is the agency in Sumter. Mr. Sinclair allowed the tickets to be issued, but his name has been put on an investigation is satisfied that the whole thing is a fraud.

Mr. Ferguson, however, has collected the 50 cents each and gone on to other pastures green. He said he was going to Florence and Darlington from here.

Criminal Carelessness.

Doc Davis, a colored boy about grown, was sentenced yesterday to 30 days imprisonment in jail, by Trial Justice Manning, for shooting little Willie Dunn with a parlor rifle last Wednesday. The boy was arrested first by the police, but Mayor Pierson decided to turn the case over to the Trial Justice, on the ground that the extent of the punishment he could impose was, in his judgment, insufficient.

It was doubtful if it was a malicious shooting, for there had been no quarrel, but as a piece of criminal carelessness with fire arms, the act is deserved to be punished. Mr. Dunn's two boys, Willie and George, and Frank Lynam were playing with the rifle when Doc Davis came along, took aim and fired. For this it is said that Jim Williams rebuked him—not by name, however, but speaking to him by name, who was standing near. Willie thought that Bryant had been the speaker, whereupon he drew his pistol and shot Bryant in the head, the ball penetrating the brain. Bryant was brought to Sumter and attended by Drs. China and Wood. It is their opinion that the wound will be mortal.

Shooting at a Fair.

During the progress of a Fair at Oswego, conducted by negroes, on Friday night last, a man named Bill W. Bryant, who was a white man, was shot by a negro named Jim Williams.

Williams thought that Bryant had been the speaker, whereupon he drew his pistol and shot Bryant in the head, the ball penetrating the brain. Bryant was brought to Sumter and attended by Drs. China and Wood. It is their opinion that the wound will be mortal.
